Preschool Program Description

The Integrated Preschool is an inclusive program for three and four year olds from the town of Sudbury. Research has revealed that young children with special needs learn best with peers in natural, interactive environments developing language, social/emotional, motor, self help and pre-academic abilities – the precursors to kindergarten success. While this model emerged from the special education field, it has developed in Sudbury into a comprehensive, high quality approach, educating our youngest children with and without special needs. Most importantly, along with developmental skills, children enrolled in the integrated experience develop an early appreciation for diverse learning styles and unique abilities coupled with the opportunity to work with a variety of educational specialists (preschool special educators, occupational therapist, physical therapist, speech/language pathologist). Each class is staffed with a preschool special educator and a team of classroom assistants and/or behavioral tutors. The preschool curriculum focuses on the common core curriculum areas of literacy, math, science, fine arts and social studies as guided by the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks. OWL - Opening The World of Learning is our current curriculum with particular emphasis placed on language and social/emotional development coupled with a comprehensive, developmental approach to learning.
